What does it mean?

Today is the First Sunday in Advent. It is the beginning of a new year in the Church as we start the liturgical cycle all over again by looking forward to Jesus' return. There are four weeks in Advent and each week has its own theme.

Draw an Advent wreath below and color the candles as you see them on the chancel. Don't forget to draw a flame on one for this first Sunday in Advent!

Hear God's Word

And the heavens _____ declare his
_____, for _____ himself is
_____. (Psalm 50:6)

---

In the verses from Luke, Jesus tells his disciples about the day when he will come a second time. He tells them he will come in the clouds with great glory. In Advent we remember Jesus' promise to come again. How can you prepare your heart to receive him?
