- Please silence cell phones -

- Welcome -

"I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." John 8:12

Guests

Thanks for joining us today! We would love to connect with you and discover ways we can better serve you. Please complete a welcome card and place the card in the offering plate, on the Welcome Center, or give it to an usher or any of the clergy. If you would prefer to complete the online welcome card instead, feel free to scan the QR code with your phone's camera.

Children

Children are a gift from the Lord and we are glad to have them as part of the worship service at All Saints! To put children and their parents at ease, children's coloring bulletins are available. A staffed nursery is available during the Saturday evening service and during both Sunday services if you would like to drop off your infant through 4-year-old. Feel free to stay with your infant/toddler in the Quiet Baby Room when needed. It is located across from the Nursery's half door. Services are broadcast in both locations.

Holy Communion

We invite all baptized believers who come in faith and repentance to Jesus Christ to receive Communion. We invite those who do not come for Communion to receive a blessing. As you come forward, cross your arms over your chest to signify your desire to receive a prayer of blessing. You can also remain at your seat without any fear of judgment. We are simply happy you are here.

The Order for the Administration Of the Lord's Supper

The People stand.

Rejoice, The Lord Is King Wesley

The Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Summary of the Law

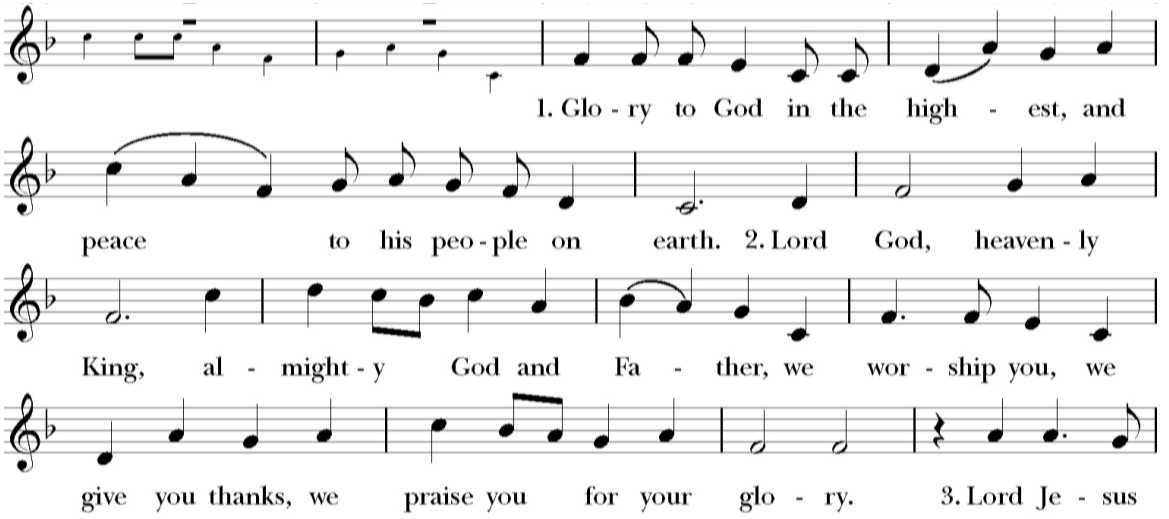

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. Matthew 22:37-40

Kyrie

Celebrant Lord, have mercy upon us.
People Christ, have mercy upon us.
Celebrant Lord, have mercy upon us.

Gloria in Excelsis

The Celebrant and People sing

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with your spirit.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The People sit.

The First Lesson Amos 5:18-24

A reading from the Book of Amos.

Woe to you who desire the day of the Lord!
  Why would you have the day of the Lord?
It is darkness, and not light,
  as if a man fled from a lion,
  and a bear met him,
or went into the house and leaned his hand against the wall,
  and a serpent bit him.
Is not the day of the Lord darkness, and not light,
  and gloom with no brightness in it?

"I hate, I despise your feasts,
  and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.
Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings,
  I will not accept them;
and the peace offerings of your fattened animals,
  I will not look upon them.
Take away from me the noise of your songs;
  to the melody of your harps I will not listen.
But let justice roll down like waters,
  and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm Psalm 70

Hasten, O God, to deliver me; *
  make haste to help me, O Lord.
Let them be ashamed and confounded who seek after my life; *
  let them be turned back and put to confusion who wish me evil.
Let them be soon brought to shame * who cry over me, "Aha! Aha!"
But let all those who seek you be joyful and glad in you; *
  and let all who delight in your salvation say always, "The Lord be praised."
As for me, I am poor and in misery; *
  hasten to me, O God.
You are my helper and my deliverer; *
  O Lord, do not tarry.

The Second Lesson — 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

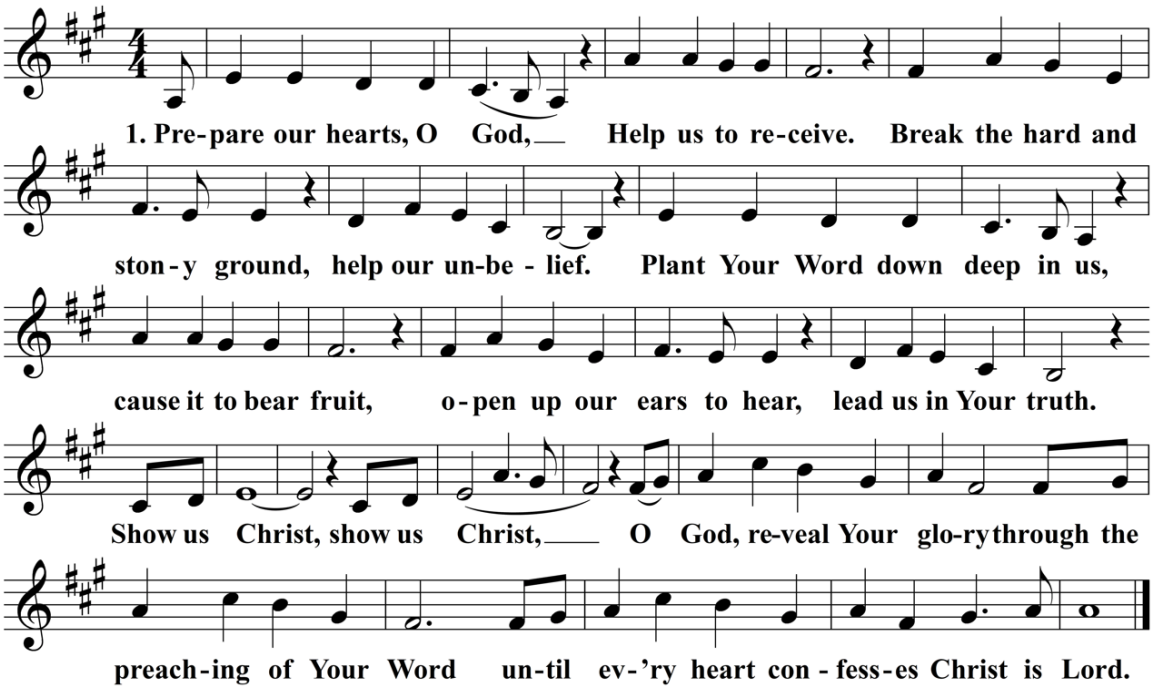

But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel — Matthew 25:1-13

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

"Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, 'Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise answered, saying, 'Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves.' And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.' Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

Nicene Creed

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father [and the Son], who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead+,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The People kneel or sit as able.

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray for the Church and for the world, saying, "hear our prayer."

For the peace of the whole world, and for the well-being and unity of the people of God.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

For Steve, our Archbishop; Julian, our Provincial Dean; Foley and Frank, our Bishops; and for all the clergy and people of our Diocese and Congregation.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

For the people and clergy of the newly formed Diocese of the Mid-South, especially for the Bishop Nominating Committee.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

Prosper, we pray, all those who proclaim the Gospel of your kingdom throughout the world, and strengthen us to fulfill your great commission, making disciples of all nations, baptizing them and teaching them to obey all that you have commanded.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

In our diocesan cycle of prayer, we remember All Souls Anglican Church in Atlanta, Georgia. We remember especially Sarah Wamalwa in East Africa; the Rogerses in North Africa; the Smiths in Chile; the Whitakers in Cambodia; Headington Hill Classical Academy; Fr. Chris and Anglican Frontier Missions; Fr. Philip and Anchor Anglican Church in England; Fr. David and Christ Church Jerusalem; Fr. Dan and the U.S.S. John C. Stennis; Fr. Matt and King of Kings in Mountain View; Fr. Derek and Church of the Cross in Joplin; and Fr. John and The Table in Springfield.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

We pray for those celebrating birthdays this week: Barbie, Ian, Linda, Margaret, Roseann, Kaitie, Kayt, Tom, Doug, Steve, and Joe. May they grow in grace as they grow in age. And we pray for those celebrating anniversaries this week: Tom & Mary.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

For our brothers and sisters in Christ who are persecuted for their faith.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

For our nation, for those in authority, and for all in public service, especially Donald our President, the members of Congress, and the justices of the Supreme Court.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

And we also bless your holy name for all your servants who have departed this life in your faith and fear, asking you to give us grace to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of your heavenly kingdom.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

I invite you to make your own thanksgivings and petitions at this time.
Lord, in your mercy:
Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes with this collect Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution of Sin

The Deacon says the following
Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Silence

The Deacon and People pray
Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest alone stands and says
Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Comfortable Words

Hear the Word of God to all who truly turn to him.

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matthew 11:28

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Timothy 1:15

If anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 2:1-2

The People stand.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with your spirit.

The Offertory Sentence

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts 20:35

The Ministry of the Table

Celebrant Yours, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for everything in heaven and on earth is yours; yours is the Kingdom, O Lord, and you are exalted as Head above all. All things come from you, O Lord,

People And of your own have we given you. 1 Chronicles 29:11, 14

The Sursum Corda

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The People kneel as able.

The Prayer of Consecration

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it,* and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

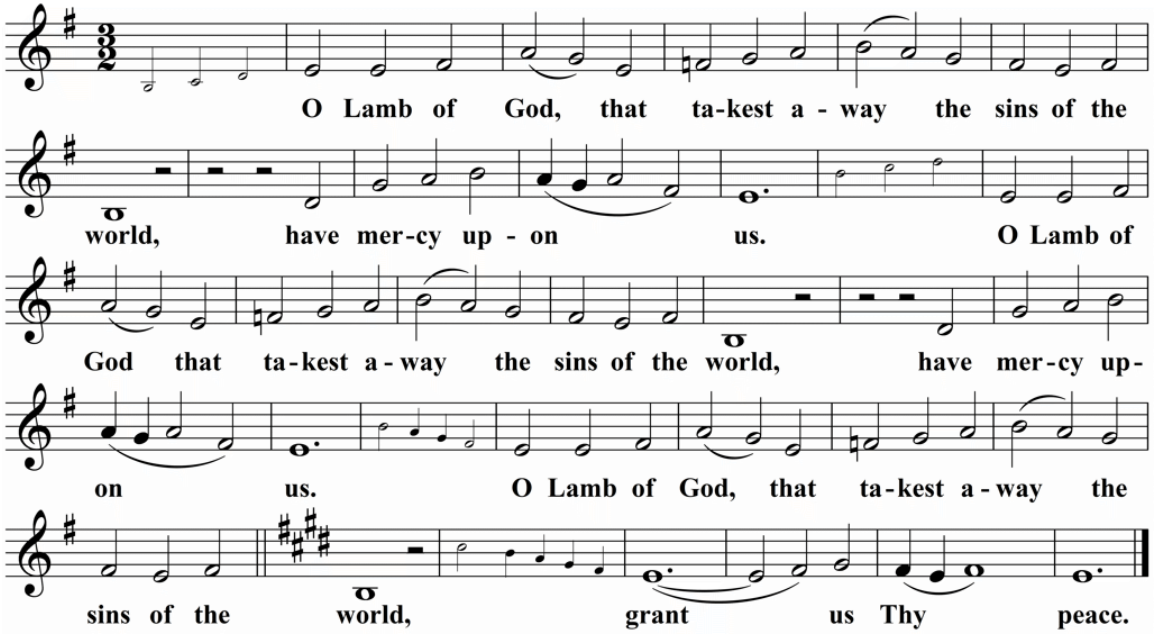

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover Lamb has been sacrificed, once for all upon the Cross.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Prayer of Humble Access

We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your abundant and great mercies.
We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table;
but you are the same Lord whose character is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body,
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

The Agnus Dei

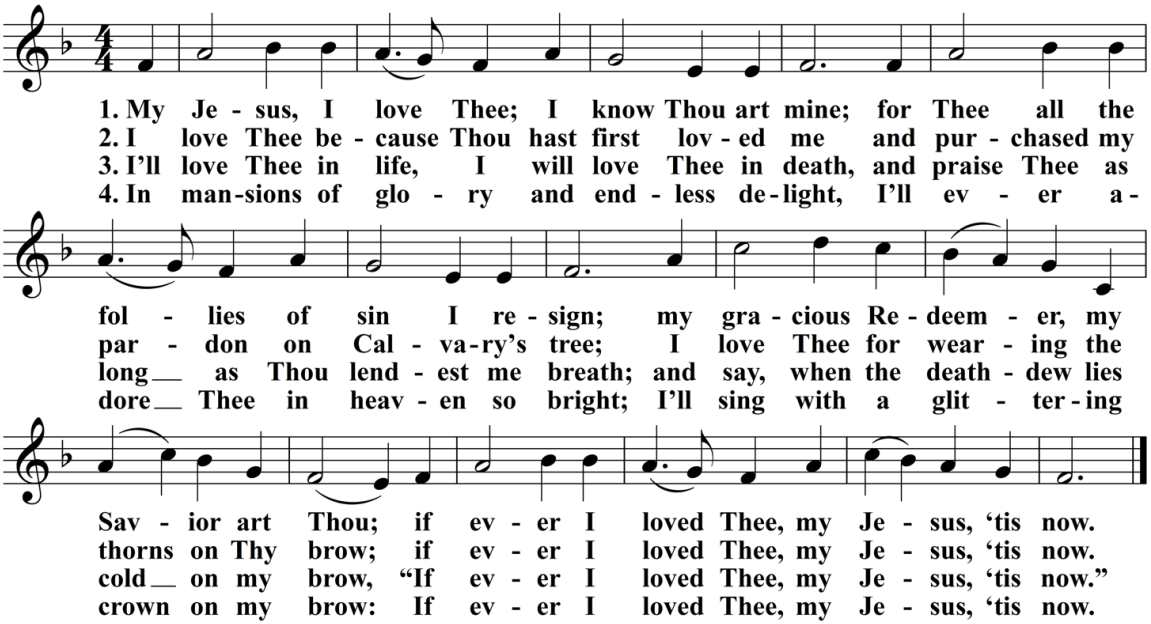

The Ministration of Communion

The gifts of God for the people of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

During Holy Communion, a prayer team is available at the back of the Nave to pray with anyone who has a prayer request.

Hymn #324 - Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Moultrie

The Post Communion Prayer

Let us pray.

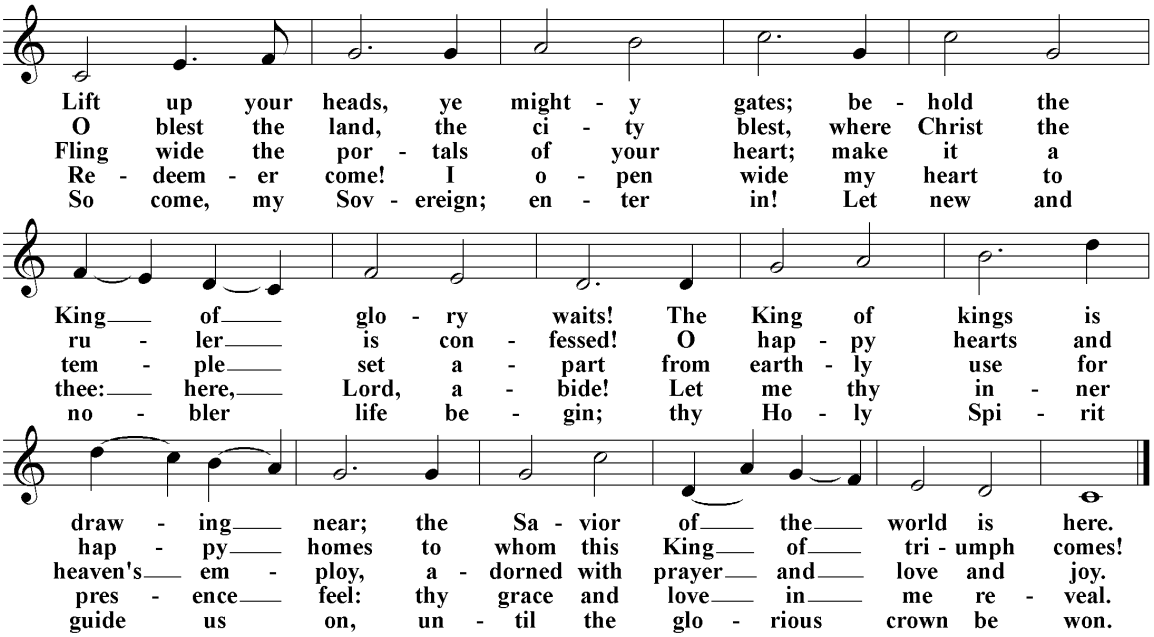

Heavenly Father,
We thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal Kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do,
to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty+, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
